SECTION 9

A special contest for ages 7-17, top 3 winners will receive special ribbons and prize from King Arthur Flour.

All participants make the following recipe, bring 4 cookies.

Basic Drop Cookies

Drop cookies (the kind you can mix up, drop from a spoon onto a cookie sheet and bake right away) are an instant gratification kind of cookie, the kind kids are most likely to make themselves when the spirit moves them. These require the least fussing and can be dropped in traditional small blobs or in giant ones to make those huge creations that are the current rage. This drop cookie version will make three dozen 3 1/2 to 4-inch large cookies or five dozen 2 1/2 to 3-inch smaller cookies.

1 cup (2 sticks) unsalted butter
 3/4 cup white sugar
 3/4 cup brown sugar, packed
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 2 eggs
 2 cups King Arthur Unbleached All-Purpose Flour
 1 cup King Arthur Traditional Whole Wheat or White Whole Wheat Flour
 1 teaspoon salt (decrease the salt to 1/2 teaspoon if using salted butter)
 1 teaspoon baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
 1/4 cup milk
 Up to 2 cups of additions – chocolate chips, nuts, dried fruit, candy, etc.

Preheat your oven to 375°F.

In a large bowl or stand mixer cream the butter and both sugars together until light. Add the vanilla and eggs and beat until the mixture becomes fluffy.

When you cream butter for cookies (or cakes, for that matter), it may seem at the beginning as if you're just mashing it flat. But if you persevere, you'll notice that it begins to get fluffy. What you're really doing is beating air into it. As you add the sugar, the mixture will become even fluffier, evidence of more air. And when the eggs are finally beaten in, the fluffiness created by those air bubbles is at its peak. The more air bubbles you can beat in at this stage of baking, the more air bubbles there are to expand in the heat of the oven.

In a separate bowl thoroughly combine the flours, salt, baking powder and baking soda. Add about 1 cup of this mixture to the butter mixture. Blend in the milk and then the remaining dry ingredients. Lastly, stir in the additions (chocolate chips, etc). If time allows, chill dough overnight to develop flavor.

Drop the dough from a teaspoon or tablespoon (depending on whether you want small or large cookies) onto a lightly greased cookie sheet and bake from 10 minutes (small cookies) to 14 minutes (large cookies) or until the edges are beginning to brown. Allow to set on tray for 2 minutes and then move to a cooling rack.

Work like a farmer

Working like a farmer means giving all you can to your job. It means that we're all in this together, all working toward one goal: making the world's best cheese and dairy products. There's a lot of pride in the work that we do, and it shows in the care and attention to every last detail. We feel lucky. This is a good life. And it's our honor to make the World's Best Cheddar for you.
