sheep dog trials

Host: Steve Wetmore

Thursday 6 PM Grandstand

At the World's Fair since 2001, competitors, or handlers, send their dogs out to gather a group of 3 sheep, and maneuver them around the race track through an obstacle course. Teams win points for every sheep that completes the course. Each run is timed, and in the event of a tie, the faster wins.

The border collies range in age, pups in training to old-timers. It is the youngsters that typically "push hard" while the older are more sheep savvy. The race track area is a very confined arena for a sheep dog trial, and this adds an additional challenge to each team. Who is smarter, the sheep, or the handler and dog?
