Code of Conduct: As an exhibitor, I understand that I am an active participant in the Tunbridge World's Fair, and as such, I will treat my fellow exhibitors and fairgoers, as well as animals, with courtesy and respect at all times, and act in good character whether in the barns or camping areas, at the show ring or on the midway. Behavior not consistent with the above will result in disciplinary action by the department superintendent(s) and in forfeiture of premiums/prizes or possible expulsion from the fair.

I hereby enter the following classes for competition at the Tunbridge World's Fair, and understand that I am subject to the Dairy Department Rules and Regulations. I will register by the deadline, otherwise I accept that I may not be able to enter. I can bring my animals or items only according to these rules before the fair opens, and I am aware I may only remove articles/exhibits/animals from the fair Sunday after 6pm (the last day of the fair) or Monday morning, the day after the fair, after which time my items, ribbons and premiums are forfeited. Uncashed premiums will be voided after December 31st.
