Code of Conduct: As an exhibitor, I understand that I am an active participant in the Tunbridge World's Fair, and as such, I will treat my fellow exhibitors and fairgoers, as well as animals, with courtesy and respect at all times, and act in good character whether in the barns or camping areas, at the show ring or on the midway. Behavior not consistent with the above will result in disciplinary action by the department superintendent(s) and in forfeiture of premiums/prizes or possible expulsion from the fair.

I hereby enter the following classes for competition at the Tunbridge World's Fair, and understand that I am subject to the Dairy Department Rules and Regulations. I will register by the deadline, otherwise I accept that I may not be able to enter. I can bring my animals or items only according to these rules before the fair opens, and I am aware I may only remove articles/exhibits/animals from the fair Sunday after 6pm (the last day of the fair) or Monday morning, the day after the fair, after which time my items, ribbons and premiums are forfeited. Uncashed premiums will be voided after December 31st.

Total # animals you plan to exhibit: cows _____ calves/heifers _____

If known, please list all exhibitors planning to tie in with you (we will try our best to accommodate stalling requests): _____

New this year: Need to substitute an animal for one you entered? All substitutes must be submitted to the Dairy Superintendent by Sunday, Sept. 8th. Most exhibitors indicated on last year's evaluation that a ringside program is an important aspect of our show. A cutoff date for changes or substitutions will help us have the most up-to-date cattle information when we send the program to the printer on Sept. 9th.
