- Entry forms for Harvest & Garden, Floral Hall and Junior Division due by September 1 for guaranteed acceptance, and name to be in the exhibitor raffle prize drawings.

STOCK

All stock and articles entered for premiums must be owned by the person entering the same, otherwise the premiums will be forfeited to the Society.

Stock withdrawn for the night (at the discretion of superintendent) must be returned by 8 A.M. the following morning, or the place will be forfeited and the stock ruled out for competition. Premiums will not be paid on stock (both open class and junior division) if they are removed from the grounds prior to the close of the fair, except if such removals be by special permit from the Department Superintendent or Secretary.

No payment will be paid for stock of any kind kept or fed off grounds unless accompanied by a written permit from the Superintendent of that department.

All stock, including cattle and horses, will be shown in a show ring, and exhibitors must be on hand to show their stock. Exhibitors must take prize-winning stock on parade or be subject to forfeit of premium. Exception at the discretion of Department Superintendent.

Horses, oxen, and dairy cattle will be shown in a ring and no person will be allowed in the ring except judges and their helpers and the party attending the animals.

All Exhibitors must furnish own hay. Bedding is provided but limited to 2 bales of shavings.

All Exhibitors must wear wristbands to have admission without problems. If you have a problem, see your superintendent for help. Be polite at ticket booths and in presence of fair-going public.

JUDGING

No person who is an exhibitor can act as a judge in the class in which he exhibits. During the examination by the judges, if any person interferes with them by letter or otherwise, such person will be excluded from competition. When called upon, exhibitors are expected to give a verbal or written statement concerning their contributions.

When there is no competition, the exhibitors may receive such awards as the judges may determine, but shall not receive premiums unless stock or articles are meritorious.

When animals or articles are not deemed worthy of a premium, the judges shall in all cases reject them and they will adhere strictly to this rule.

Exhibitors of livestock need to be prepared to show registry and health papers.

In examining stock, reference will be made to symmetry, size and docility, and general characteristics of good breeding which not only exhibits the skills of the breeders but greatly enhances the value of the stock produced on the farm.

See Code of Conduct on entry form.

After the fair: Remember to pick up your items, ribbons and premiums immediately after 6PM Sunday or on Monday morning from 9-11AM. Exhibits are not saved or stored.
 ~No ribbons are mailed afterwards due to prohibitive postage, so only premium checks at the latest by October 31, as a courtesy. Make sure your address is complete and up to date on your entry form.
 ~Premium checks must be cashed by December 31 or else become VOID, and not re-issued.

OPEN DAIRY SHOW: DEPARTMENT 10

Robert Howe—Superintendent, 889-3704
 Jena Young—Assistant Superintendent

1. Both Jr. and Open Exhibitors for cattle should be entered on the same entry blank. Please note that the Junior Cattle entry information follows the Open information. Entry forms are due August 15. Please note the proper dept., class, and breed/section numbers.
2. All animals must be owned and registered in the exhibitor's name on or before July 1. Leased animals are allowed (dated prior to August 15) for Junior exhibitors only. Junior Division entrants must enter their animals in the Open Show under the same name as in the Junior Show. Signed leased forms must be available for inspection prior to the show. Junior exhibitor entries may be shown by a farm representative for the Open show, and those animals will be eligible for group classes. A farm or family unit is limited to one entry per group class, and the intention to exhibit as a farm or family unit must be indicated to the Superintendent prior to the show.
3. Calves under 4 months of age will not be awarded cash prizes in single classes. Fall Yearling heifers which have freshened will be shown in the two-year old class. An exhibitor may enter more than one animal in single classes, but only one entry in group classes. All animals shown in group classes must have been shown in single classes.
4. Health requirements must be followed. Random checking will take place prior to the show. Registration papers and lease forms must be available at the request of the superintendent. Out-of-state exhibitors get permits from Chief of Livestock, Department of Agriculture, Montpelier, VT. Write for them early.

Requirements to meet Purebred Standards:
 Line Back and Dutch Belt breeds require physical characteristics only to qualify.
 Ayrshire, Brown Swiss, Guernsey and Holstein breeds must be 85% pr higher to qualify to show.
 Jersey cattle must be purebred or JX at level 4 or higher.

DAIRY

5. All animals must be on the grounds by 8 P.M. Wednesday evening of the Fair; late arrivals need to contact the Superintendent. Any animal not meeting health requirements will be removed at the request of the superintendent and the veterinarian on duty.
6. All exhibitors entering Gate 6 to provide feed and supplies must be done and out prior to 8 A.M. All trailers must be parked in allotted parking area in Sherlock's Field (through Gate 8).
7. Animals will be released at 6 P.M., Sunday, or at the discretion of the Superintendent. Please do not start loading before that time. Failure to comply with this rule may result in loss of premiums. All trailers must enter Gate 6 and depart by way of the back side of the race track, exiting at southwest end of fairground through Vendor gate.
8. Exhibitors must take a representation or group on parade for the Cavalcade of Livestock. Exemptions only at the discretion of the Superintendent.
9. Due to limited space, the Superintendent reserves the right to reduce herd sizes, or eliminate late entries. All efforts will be made to accommodate exhibitors.
10. Exhibitors will receive wristbands to wear all four days instead of season tickets.

No pop-up canopies allowed especially in fire-lanes, discuss storage with superintendent.

health standards

HEALTH STANDARDS FOR VERMONT FAIRS

Note: Animals being imported from outside the state of Vermont must comply with the established rules governing the importation of domestic animals including livestock and poultry. Contact the office of the State Veterinarian at 802-828-2421.

Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI)

All Vermont cattle, sheep, goats, camelids, and swine shall have a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection issued by a veterinarian within six months of the event. Such certificate shall include a description of the animal(s) including sex, breed, age, and any form of individual identification. Such certificate shall also state that the described animals have been inspected and show no signs of infectious, contagious, and/or communicable disease. Such certificate shall also document dates of any required vaccinations or health tests.

Vermont equine animals accompanied by a current negative official EIA test record with a complete identification of the horse and a record of a current rabies vaccination will be acceptable in lieu of a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection.

Rabies Vaccination

All animals for which there is an approved rabies vaccine, including cattle, horses, sheep, dogs, cats and ferrets, shall have a current rabies vaccination according to the manufacturers recommendations. Such vaccination shall be documented either on an individual rabies vaccination certificate or a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection and shall include the name of the vaccine used, serial number, date administered and its duration. Rabies vaccination of equine can be recorded on an official EIA test record. The vaccination should be administered at least 30 days (and current within the previous 12 months) prior to the event and according to the manufacturers recommendation.

EIA/Coggins for Horses

All equine shall have documentation of a negative test result for Equine Infectious Anemia within 12 months of the event. Such test results shall be documented either on an official EIA test record form or on a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection including the date of sampling and the laboratory where the test was run.

Cattle Shipping Fever Vaccination

All cattle shall have a shipping fever vaccination within 6 months but no less than 14 days prior to the event which includes IBR, BVD, PI3, and BRSV. Such vaccination shall be documented on a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection and shall include the date administered and the trade name of the vaccine.
